PRIVACY NOTICE

The Northern Ireland Police Fund Regulations 2016 established The Northern Ireland Police Fund (the Fund) as a body corporate. The role of the Fund is to provide care and financial assistance to police officers and ex-officers who have been injured or disabled as a direct result of terrorism, and to the widows, widowers and families of police officers killed or injured through terrorism. This includes PSNI officers who may be killed or injured in the future in this way. We support our clients through our schemes which are designed to enable them to enjoy a quality of life in their home and make a positive long-term impact on their circumstances.

How we use your personal information:

- To establish your eligibility as a client of the Fund.
- To process grants for eligible clients of the Fund and the relevant processes involved.
- To keep you informed about new schemes that may be of interest to you or changes to the way we do things.

Where do you get my personal information from?

- We hold information that has been supplied to us from you, our client, via our application forms and the supporting documents that you include at our request as part of your application.

- We also hold reports created by our Occupational Therapists when they visit your home to assist in applications for disability equipment.

How long we will keep your personal information:

- We will hold your personal information for as long as you are a client of the Fund, it will then be destroyed or deleted in accordance with our retention and disposal schedule.
- If a client dies and they have a surviving spouse, that spouse will then automatically become an eligible client of the Fund for the duration of their natural life. The information for both will be kept together. It will then be destroyed or deleted in accordance with our retention and disposal schedule.
- Personal information about unsuccessful applicants will be held for 12 months, it will then be destroyed or deleted in accordance with our retention and disposal schedule.

Do you share my personal information with anyone else?

- We share information with the RUCGC PSNI Benevolent Fund in relation to making payments to Widows. This is to make sure our information is as up to date and accurate as possible.

How do I complain if I am not happy?
